24 years teaching experience

There are many benefits to teaching at St. Peter School. I like that we get to learn about God and attend Mass each week as a school family. I also like that through school and church we get to know our students and their families very well.

I work to provide the structure that students need to have a good learning environment yet still enjoy learning. I also work to build a good relationship with students so they want to learn and understand the value of learning.

One of the unique opportunities offered in my classroom is our new Social Studies books. We will focus on learning about the regions of our country.

My teaching style:

I work to provide the structure that students need to have an encouraging learning environment yet still enjoy learning.
