St. Peter School is having our annual Halloween Bash on October 30th from 6:00-8:00 pm. We thank our 8th grade class officers for organizing this event for our 6th - 8th grade students. Please bring a canned good/non-perishable item to enter. Students are encouraged to wear their Halloween Costume as there will be a costume contest. There will also be music, dancing, games, snacks, a raffle contest, and pictures. Please plan to attend and have a howling good time!

Thank you so much to our parent chaperones! We truly appreciate all you do for us!

TRY-DAY FRIDAY NUTRITION DAY - NOV 2nd

Try-Day, Friday, November 2nd will be an educational food experience for students throughout the school day. St. Peter School students will join an "Extreme Fruit & Vegetable Adventure" by sampling new foods, while learning how and why to make healthy food choices. They will be able to vote for a new food to be offered on their school menu. It will be interactive assembly with different classrooms rotating through educational stations set up in the cafeteria. The menu consists of foods chosen to fit within the USDA School Meals Program's nutrition standards. The foods sampled will include Cinnamon Chipotle Squash, Fiesta Pinto Bean Salsa, and Mixed Fruit served with scratch made Whole Grain Cinnamon Chip. This event is a collaborated effort with St. Peter School's foodservice staff (our awesome kitchen ladies), educators, and their foodservice distribution partner, Kohl Wholesale.
