

Corn

Illinois State Vegetable is sweet corn.

Illinois was the ninth largest state for sweet corn production in 2016. Sweet corn is considered in season June through October. Illinois is second overall for all corn production.

The official snack food of Illinois is popcorn. This became law in August 2003.

Corn is a good source of vitamin C! This vitamin plays many roles in the body, but did you know it can also help heal cuts and wounds?
